Pakistan: Suicide bombers attack Peshawar judicial complex, 4 killed

-, 19.03.2013, 03:20 Time

USPA News - A suicide bomber targeted the judicial complex killing at least four people, local authorities said Monday. Two suicide bombers attacked the Judicial Complex of Peshawar, the provincial capital of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, as they tried to enter the Additional Sessions Judge Kulsoom Azam courtroom, police told the News International.

Police were able to shoot and kill one of the attackers, but the other detonated the explosives, killing four people and injuring another 33. Among the victims were policemen and judicial workers. Local authorities quickly surrounded the complex, as the injured were rushed to the Lady Reading Hospital. No group or terrorist organization claimed responsibility of the attack.
